As a first timer at CSW62 I was pleased to attend the Orientation session at 8.30am this morning to learn more about how the Commission works across the UN and with NGOs and more. The next session I attended was the session on the Rights, Voice, Dreams and Friendships; How Teenage Girls Achieve Empowerment, sponsored by the Young Women's Development Group. The session provided information about a project to empower young women and girls in the Czech Republic and the Republic of Russia which was very informative with feedback from the girls. The other sessions I attended are written in my notepad, as my laptop ran out of energy and my notepad should be returned to me tomorrow, already for another day at the UN.

Last meeting of the night was the New Zealand briefing where we heard about the Minister's engagements during the day. Delegates have the opportunity to feed back information we feel relevant. We were pleasantly interrupted by a lady with a football/soccer ball with the UN Global Goals World Cup SDGs on it and everyone was very interested in the Global Survey. #CSW62 #SWPCSW62 #RURALWOMEN #TAKETHEBALL #GGWCUP
