I hope you all had a happy December January festive season and for those that celebrate Chinese New Year I hope it was a happy occasion for you I hope you have all completed your club annual reports and remember that those who wish to nominate for Best Practice Awards need to have submitted projects to the Programme Database in 2019.

At the start of this new year, our first significant celebration, other than International Day of Education 24th January, International Day of Zero Tolerance to Female Genital Mutilation 6th February and International Day of Women and Girls in Science 11th February is International Women's Day (IWD) March 8th where many of us will be celebrating what women have achieved. I hope clubs celebrate this significant date itself or a closely associated date with members of the public to educate outsiders what has been gained for women but what has still to be achieved will be in New York on IWD and attending the Consultation Day which actually occurs on IWD itself March 8th the day before the start of CSW 64.

This year at the Commission for the Status of Women (CSW) in New York there is a 25 year review of those issues identified as 'critical' at the Women, a gathering of women from around the world in Beijing in 1995 and which resulted in the Beijing Platform for Action (BPFA). The 1995 BPFA where action was needed to ensure greater equality and opportunities for women and men, girls and boys. It also indicated concrete ways for change. A review of achievements in the 12 Critical Areas of Concern for Women occurs at CSW every 5 years.

The 12 Critical Areas of Concern identified were:-

- Women and Poverty
- Education and Training of women
- Women and health
- Violence against women
- Women and armed conflict
- Women and the economy
- Women in power and decision-making
- Institutional mechanisms
- Human rights of women
- Women and the media
- Women and the environment
- The girl child

Unwomen.org/en/news/in-focus feature stories which provides some comments on the achievements up to 20 years post the Beijing gathering.

I heard an interesting address recently on 'Difficult Women', a presentation that Dr Gabrielle Casper an Australian Gynaecological surgeon, a President of Medical Women had provided at CSW last year. Essentially if we as women are to raise an issue, then we need data to accompany government and the consequence may be that we become known as 'difficult women'....such is life! One of her examples was trying to improve the where she worked with a colleague to gather evidence on how local villages treated the women who had been widowed .

Advocacy Work

What are priorities in your country? What are clubs doing in advocacy?

Advocating on behalf of women is a core Soroptimist function, and this month the programme team is pleased to once again be able to report on Soroptimist Advocacy work.

SI Torrens – Decriminalisation of Sex Work

Over a number of years the SI Torrens has been working with selected female politicians to gain support for a Bill to decriminalise sex work and conditions for sex workers. This year club member attended a forum and wrote a letter to a number of politicians.

The club's continued advocacy on this issue is determined by what is required according to the progress of a Bill. The Bill had passed the Upper House the Lower House of Parliament. Members attended a forum where female politicians from both major parties spoke as well as sex workers themselves safe working conditions. Some members also wrote and personally met with their local politician. As a result the club hopes to see the decriminalisation as this would enable workers to get the same type of working conditions and controls as other workers. Unfortunately the Bill was defeated by a narrow House so advocacy will have to continue when another bill is introduced by a parliamentarian.

Tell us what your club is doing to Advocate on behalf of women. Send us the information or complete a Advocacy Programme Report Best Practice Award Nominations have been extended until the 29th of February midnight AEDT.

Your club can nominate any project which has been submitted to the programme database for the 2019 reporting period.

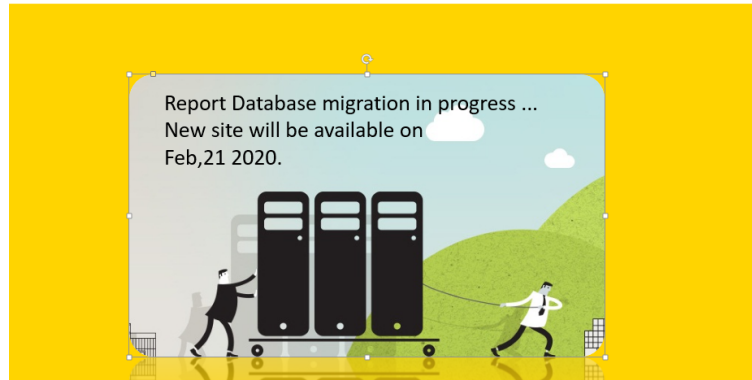

Categories for nomination are:

Any of the eight Objective areas

The SISWP President's special awards.

For further information about the criteria for the awards, and links to the nomination forms, please visit the SISWP website (you must be signed in), and search for BP/

Programme Database

The Programme Database is moving, for the past 6 months, the database has been hosted by the Developers on their servers. It is now time for access to the SISWP server.

What does this mean: On Tuesday 18th March at midnight, the current database will be closed down and migrated to the SISWP hosted. From 19th March the database will be accessible at the new site.

The new address will be www.reports.siswp.org. All links to the site from the SISWP website will be updated to the new site.

Email notifications will be sent to all clubs informing them of this move. Please pass on this information to your programme reporting representatives

New programme database site address is www.reports.siswp.org

Annual Reports

Clubs should now start to consider creating their Club Annual report. Clubs can create their annual report from the Programme Database. Using the 'Create Report' button from the left hand menu.

The Club Reports are produced from a query which searches the database for any reports submitted to the database which have a Start date of 31/12/2019 and an End date of between 01/01/2019 to 31/12/2019, and have been approved. The criteria is the same for Region, Country and Zone

Reoccurring Projects:

The Programme team have received a few queries on how to handle reoccurring projects. If your project is reoccurring, you should report each year. Your start date should be inclusive of the current year, and your end date should be inclusive of the current year. Do NOT put in the actual start date of the project, as this will then not appear in your annual reports.

Rejected Reports:

Please take note of the comments received back from the programme team in regards to the rejected reports. To reuse the rejected report, open up the report, click the 're-use' button, this will create a copy of the rejected report, give the report a new title and then make any necessary changes to the report, then save the report. Please remember to delete the rejected report from your rejected reports list.

NOTE: If the report was submitted as a Activity and it has been suggested that you resubmit as a project, please remember to use the 'download' button of the report, so that you have the information to reuse.

Further indepth analysis of the database can also be harvested. For example here in Australia, clubs utilize Bunnings (a major hardware store) to hold BBQ's to raise for 2019 this activity raised close to $30,000 dollars for Soroptimits to spend on projects which benefited women and girls.

The Road to Equality Appeal, 2019-2021, will focus on issues already the focus of much of the SI advocacy work, such as child marriage, FGM/C, th women, human trafficking, migration, and domestic violence. A grassroots project for each topic will bring stories from the field that we can share, all turn up the volume of our global voice.

The coordinators joining us on 'The Road to Equality' are Ayushi Kundu and Olga Sidenko, who will work within a team that will include a representative from the International Federation, to ensure that this appeal is brought to life. Nora Lam is the SISWP Representative on the team.

Child marriage is a human rights violation that affects over 12 million girls every year. Global Goal 5 promotes the expansion of gender equality and aims to eliminate child marriage. Read the Soroptimist International position statement on the Girl Child here

The following articles highlight why the SI President's Appeal is essential to raising awareness and keep the focus on advocacy work and Pakistan's Child Marriage Restraint Act 1929 sets the legal age for girls to marry at 18. But this law is rarely enforced, as the Pakistani courts often (under the law) instead, which they interpret as allowing any girls who has gone through puberty to marry.

Recently it has been reported that a high court in Pakistan has ruled that men can marry underage girls, under Sharia law, after they have experienced their menstrual cycle. The ruling was made by the Sindh High Court on Feb. 3 during the hearing of Huma Younus, a 14-year-old Catholic girl who was abducted, converted to Islam, and forced into child marriage.

To prove the marriage was invalid and illegal, Younus' parents brought a copy of her baptismal certificate and testimony from her school to the hearing. Her family cited the Sindh Child Marriage Restraint Act, which prohibits the marriage of any child under the age of 18.

The judges, however, ruled that the marriage between Younus and her abductor, Abdul Jabbar, was legal under Sharia law because she had already reached the age of puberty.

After the high court's devastating verdict, Younus' parents and their lawyer Tabassum Yousaf, announced that they will seek justice from Pakistan's Supreme Court. "We shall not stop until we get justice," Yousaf told AsiaNews.

What can we as Soroptimists do: Support the SI President's appeal, to enable the appeal to support girls in pursuing education and avoiding child marriage programmes which educate, empower them with information on the rights of a girl child, and then enable them through economic opportunities.

SISWP will have one of their biggest contingents of members attending CSW 64 in New York. This team will be headed by President Anusha Catherine.

Whereas in the past each CSW has had a major theme for review such as Rural Women. This year the main focus of the session will be on the implementation of the Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action and the outcomes of the 23rd special session of the General Assembly. The assessment of current challenges that affect the implementation of the Platform for Action and the achievement of gender equality and the empowerment contribution towards the full realization of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development. Soroptimist International have represented members at the review process.

The SISWP team at CSW64 will keep you up to date with happenings by blogging and social media posts during the 2 weeks.

SISWP will be hosting two parallel events at CSW64

Event 1 - "Transformational Breakthroughs and Educational Innovations to Empower Indigenous Girls."

Date: Wednesday 11 March (New York Time) , Time: 4:30 PM

Event 2 - Vulnerable No More! Security and Resilience of Women After Disaster".

Date: Friday 13 March 2020 (New York time) Time: 4:30 PM

Both events will be live streamed via SISWP facebook page at the following time . Event 1 Australia it will be Thursday 12th of March at 7.00am Sydney Time.

Event 2 - Saturday 14th March at 7.00am. Sydney Time. Please check dates and times for your country.

UN Women

Your UN Representatives have been active at the Beijing Plus 25 Region reviews.

Linda Witong, Special Advisor to Advocacy attended the Copenhagen Declaration and Program for Action meeting, read her blog on the Soroptimist Lilliana Mosca, UN Representative attended the 10th International Forum on Food and Nutrition, "Fostering Business and Innovation while preserving Milan. Read her blog here.

In November SI UN Representative and SISWP Member Theresa Devasahayam represented SI at the Bangkok Regional Review meeting. She reports that "Some striking issues which were discussed at this forum were the anxiety millennials living in this region felt in the job market especially with rising inflation and the emergence of the gig economy; the persistence of degrading depictions of women in the media; rape and sexual violence and the lack of legislation protecting women; lack of access to reproductive health services because of religious injunctions on sexuality and a sense that men and boys are not sufficiently engaged in advocacy for women's rights." Please read Theresa's full report on this meeting on the SISWP website

How can we as Soroptimists influence and bring about change to the women and girls in our countries, we need to be involved in local organisations. Especially as UN Women moves to catalyze collective action, drive increased public and private investment, and deliver game-changers for women and girls everywhere, through the "The Generation Equality Forum".

Here in Australia, Soroptimists through our National Representative are a member of the ERA (Equality Rights Alliance), which is Australia's largest women's equality, women's leadership and recognition of women's diversity. We bring together 61 organisations with an interest in advancing women. Through this membership we have a voice to advance gender equality.

In the Asia Pacific region, two organisations Arrow and APWLD are critical in organising the people's forums and other CSO meetings held in Bangkok. They also to some extent work with ESCAP and UN Women. Sivananthi Thanenthiran is Executive Director of ARROW (Asian-Pacific Resource Centre for Women) and has been appointed as one of the Civil Society Advisory Groups. SISWP Countries through their National Representatives would contact with these organisations.

Around the Federation

The 16 Days of Activism, SI Cobram Barooga sent in the information about their event.

Our Club conducted a State to State walk on Sunday 1st December 2019 in our efforts to put forward the message that Family Violence is not OK. We had support from local council – Moira Shire who were able to help with some of our printing, lots of advice and promotion of the event. We also used Facebook to promote it as local media. We have run an event during the 16 days of activism for the past 6 or 7 years and the State to State walk for the past 2 years. We hope the format and hope to continue in years to come. Each year we attract more and more interested parties and it's great that we have had such support from local media.

Stop violence

By Liam Nash

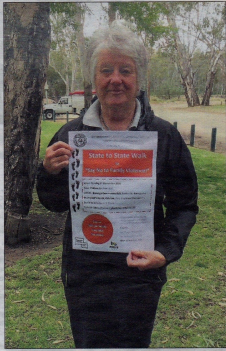

December 1 might signal the start of the year's merriest month, but Cobram-Barrooga Soroptimist is encouraging locals to take part in the annual state-to-state walk on that day to help stamp out an unspeakable atrocity somehow still present today — domestic violence.

As part of the United Nations 16 days of activism campaign, people will unite at Barrooga community hall to embark on a scenic trek through the bush, finishing up at Cobram's Thompsons Beach for a free breakfast put on by Cobram Lions Club.

The message behind the walk is clear:

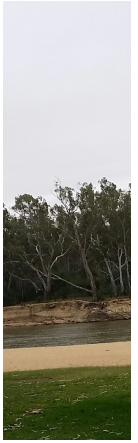

"The walk aims to bring attention to the incidents of domestic violence and raise awareness that it is not okay to be violent to anyone," Cobram-Barrooga Soroptimist program coordinator Kay Morgan said.

White Ribbon Australia's statistics reveal domestic and family violence is the leading cause of homelessness for women and children; on average one woman a week is murdered by her current or former partner; almost 40 per cent of women continued to experience violence from their partner while temporarily separated; and one in three people do not think controlling someone is a form of violence.

Making a push: Cobram-Barrooga Soroptimist member Pam O'Dwyer holding a flyer by Thompsons Beach, where the walk will finish.

Anyone interested in taking part in the walk can book on the day or visit www.itsbookings.com/book/even/1616162019. Tickets are $10 a person or $25 a family, with all proceeds going towards the Maroon Community (Boora Family Violence Crisis Centre), as well as the Feed the Farmers campaign.

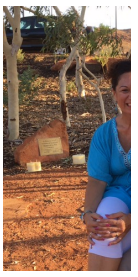

SI Karratha celebrated International Human Rights Day on the 10th December with a Silent Vigil at our newly completed Walgu (Welcome) purple flower chairs together with the domestic violence information Placque have been installed by the City of Karratha. The Purple Bench is through the Women's Counsel of W.A and to date there are about 8 purple benches in the Perth Metropolitan area and some regional areas but Karratha has three purple flower chairs made with steel due to our climate in the north west of west Australia.

The Silent Vigil was quite magical under the snappy gums surrounded by the red earth and candle lit area. We held one minute of silence to remember those who have suffered in silence and we read a poem enhancing our understanding and then our two guest speakers Paul and Kim Tahitahi took us through their experience of domestic violence within their marriage and showed us through their determination and love how they gained the strength to carry on and now they are all well.

SI Petaling Jaya, recently submitted to the programme database information about this project. SPOT Community: Women of Worth, this project is having been launched on International Women's Day 2019. SPOT organised our first event of the year in conjunction with the International Women's March. The event was successfully executed by 20 volunteers and had resulted in 100 new followers on our social media platform Instagram. The event featured a SPOT exhibition, a forum discussion titled "Let's Talk About Sex" and the SPOTLINE launch.

SPOT Community Women of Worth is a series of events organised with the aim to uplift girls and women and celebrate the achievements and accomplishments in society.

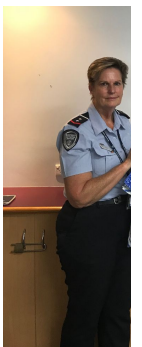

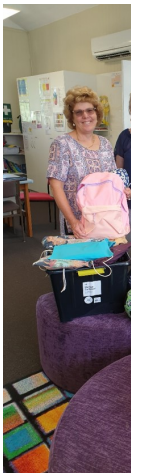

The event began with the launch of SPOTLINE, a volunteer-run 24 hour sexuality education textline available via text or WhatsApp at +018 240 4033, officiated by Puan Sri Siew Yong Gnanalingam, Past Federation President (2012-2014), Soroptimist International of the South West Pacific Federation Potgeiter, President (2018-2020) Soroptimist International Club of Petaling Jaya. SPOTLINE aims to provide freely available information for crucial, timely decision making, allowing young people to take charge of their sexual and reproductive health.

The launch was followed by the Let's Talk About Sex Ed Panel, with Dr Hamizah Mohd Hassan, Head of the Reproductive Health Unit at LPPKN, Ho lawyer and activist; and Chahana Ramesh, a SPOT volunteer. Moderated by journalist, actor and activist Tehmina Kaoosji, the panel discussed the importance of sex education at home, in their communities and on a national level.

SEXUAL AND REPRODUCTIVE HEALTH AND RIGHTS (SRHR)

Soroptimists respond to disaster recovery, with the recent fires in Australia, SI Beenleigh jumped into action. January is back to school month after the end of the summer holidays and the beginning of a new school year. SI Beenleigh club members were concerned that many farming communities coming out of drought and now fires would not be in a financial position to purchase basic school supplies for their children. A Trybooking Fundraising page was set up, advertising SISWP club page for donations went ahead. The club utilized a project already in place - Target 10 a library bag complete with essential school items. Correctional Centre were contacted and they made 400 library bags over 2 weeks, the women were so pleased to be able to help. The State member was contacted and their office suggested 6 small schools in a farming community which had recently suffered from drought and then the bushfires. They were contacted and a date was arranged for a road trip to these schools. Two members set out at 6.30 in the morning to travel to the 6 schools. They delivered complete with essential school items, crocheted rugs for the sick bays, soccer balls and other assorted balls, along with toiletry items for the women, stationery supplies for the teachers. The schools were very welcoming and were so thrilled that they had been thought of. One small school said she started school yet and she was sure that it was due to not having school supplies so she was going to immediately contact all families to say that the supplies at the school for students to use.
